EVENT REPORT

Name of Event: - "Webinar on Internships with Scholarships on Microsoft and Google with Free Ethical Hacking Training"

Staff Coordinator: - Prof. Rajkumar Patil

Student Coordinator: - Akhil A

The webinar on "Internships with Scholarships on Microsoft and Google with Free Ethical Hacking Training" was organized by Department of Information Technology, Department of Computer Engineering, NBSSOE, Pune and Quantum Learning on 16th Sep 2021 Thursday. The webinar was organized for SE, TE and BE student batch of IT Department and CE Department. Total 280+ student has registered in event and attended the webinar. There were more than 120 students from IT department present in the webinar.

• EVENT DESCRIPTION:

On 16/09/2021 event was started at 11:00 AM, Webinar was presented by Mr. Tushar Jethani, He is Co-Founder of Quantum Learning and completed MS in Data Science & Analytics from Washington DC. The session started by giving a picture of the current scenario of availability of jobs, and about the competition to get a decent job. And due to the pandemic situation, there is more competition for the job. In such a situation having certification in a specific domain is very much beneficial to get placed in a good company.

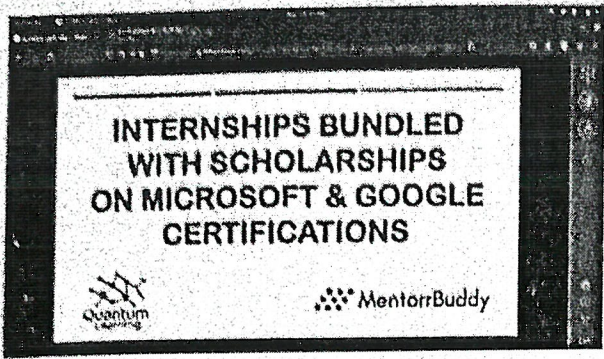

The team also walked us through the procedure of how we are going to get trained and get certified in domains like Data Analysis, AI and Machine Learning, and Cyber Security from Microsoft and Google by signing up for the training and certification program. They also specified the additional perks that students would receive from the certification such as access to the MentorBuddy LMS platform, Letter of Recommendation, access to internship offers by recommendation on MentorBuddy Platform.

The team is offering the courses and certification at a rate of 75% scholarship. It is a great opportunity for students to prepare themselves for real-world job opportunities, and the certification would surely give them an edge over the other candidates. Session was very insightful, enlightening all the students about the importance of certification in the advancement in their career. Student surely believe that they are going to benefit a lot from this certification program, and would be a great stepping stone in their career.
