1.4.1 Institution obtains feedback on the academic performance

Fundamentals of Java (FJP), third year subject is offered as one of the elective for students. Regarding this new subject, the concern faculty member Prof. Shamika Jog were facing issues for Eclipse/Neon software installation. Thereafter, Prof. Jog madam has suggested to conduct all the practical's in Notepad+ along with CMD console with available computing facilities.

In view with this, the issue was reported to Prof. Tejaswini Deshmukh, Chairman from KBT College of Engineering, Nashik. She has given the consent to go ahead.

Respected madam,

As per discussion in FOW, Eclipse IDE was suggested as a tool for FJP programming subject (2019 Course). But students are facing difficulty in using it. On the other hand, Notepad++ with JDK version 7/8 is easy to understand Java programming practicals.

I request you to consider,

Thanks & Regards,

Respected Man,

It is absolutely ok if you are using notepad++, nothing is made compulsory. If students are fine with it continue with same.

Respected madam,

As per discussion in FOW , Eclipse IDE was suggested as a tool for FJP programming subject ( 2019 Course).But students are facing difficulty in using it.
On the other hand, Notepad++ with JDK version 7/8 is easy to understand Java programming practicals.

I request you to consider.

Subject: Regarding suggestion in reframing the curriculum of BE Syllabus.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

We faculty of Department of Electrical Engineering, NBN Sinhgad Technical Institutes Campus, Pune are suggesting a few changes in the syllabus of Final Year Engineering which are proposed by our stakeholders. According to feedback analysis of stakeholders on the existing curriculum, we are requesting the BOS chairman and members of BOS to please consider the below points.

Noting down the suggestions below:

1. Smart Grid

- Addition of content of Low PAN RF meter
- Smart Substations

Please consider these suggestions while reframing the new curriculum and we would also like to request the Board of Studies Chairman and Members to consider our faculties for syllabus reframing meetings.

Thanking You
